MISSOULA--

Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the University of Montana School of Law, has announced the appointment of two new faculty members for the 1976-77 academic year.

The new faculty members are Ronald Charles Wyse and William Lee Corbett.

Wyse, who was recently in private practice in Los Angeles, has assumed the post of associate professor. Wyse, who obtained his bachelor of laws degree from the University of California in 1965, is a native of California. He obtained his bachelor of arts degree in history from the University of California in 1960. He is a member of the Washington and California Bar Associations.

In addition to his work as a private practitioner, Wyse was an assistant professor of law at Gonzaga University, Spokane, Wash. from 1969-1972, and an associate professor of law at the University of Idaho, Moscow, from 1972-1975.

Wyse will teach Civil Procedure I, ex parte and office practice, and anti-trust.

In addition to various journal publications, Wyse has published a textbook entitled "Agency and Partnership Analysis" (University of Idaho Press, 1974).

He is a major in the U.S. Army Reserve, and saw service as a tank company commander with the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment in Viet Nam.

While at the University of Idaho, he was chairman of the Affirmative Action Committee and Law School Admissions Committee.

Corbett will serve as an assistant professor, teaching courses in torts and labor and administrative law. Corbett, who is originally from Saratoga, Wyo., graduated from the University of Wyoming, Laramie, in 1967 with a bachelor of science degree in business and economics. He graduated cum laude from the University of Wyoming Law School in 1970. While attending law school, he served on the Law Review and held a teaching fellowship in business law. In 1971, he graduated from Harvard Law School with a master of laws degree.

Corbett was a legislative assistant to Sen. Clifford P. Hansen of Wyoming from 1974-76. From 1971-74, Corbett was an attorney for the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D.C.

His latest article, which appeared on page 487 of Vol. 5 of the Land and Water Law Review, is entitled "The Right of Wyoming State and Municipal Employees to Organize, Receive Exclusive Recognition and Bargain Collectively" (1970).
